

GIANT SEQUOIA HIKE OR SNOWSHOE

Winter & Early Spring*

A visit amongst the magnificent Giant Sequoia will leave one awe-struck any time of year, but winter and spring make for unforgettable outings. Walking on snowshoes (or on foot if snow is limited) is easy and opens up a landscape that is seen by few visitors. Our three-mile round trip forest walk along the historic Old Big Flat Road descends to a serene and entrancing grove of Giant Sequoias. Sunlight pierces their feathery foliage landing on the white snow, a stunning contrast to the tree's red hued bark. In spring, wildflowers and birds join us on our hike, adding to the serenity. Our guides will share knowledge about the Park and its trees, ensuring a fun and inspiring experience!
