Lonely Planet review

Near the entrance to Hetch Hetchy, this classic 90-year-old resort lets roughing-it guests cheat with comfy, prefurnished tents and deluxe mountain cabins. Outdoor recreational activities abound, with equipment rentals available. There's a general store, tavern with a pool table and a restaurant (dinner mains $18 to $28) serving three hearty meals every day.

Our independent authors have visited Evergreen Lodge Resort $$$ and selected this as one of our recommended hotels in Yosemite National Park.
