

SOUTH RIM OF YOSEMITE VALLEY NATURALIST HIKE

Summer & Fall*

Skip past the summer crowds and take a hike with our fun and informative naturalist guides along the southern rim of Yosemite Valley. This 10.5 mile round-trip hike starts with Red Fir groves and meadows of wildflowers that are home to historic sites like McGurk’s cabin from the late 1800’s.

We venture on to the southern rim to the less-traveled vista at Dewey Point, continuing to Crocker and Stanford Points time permitting. You’ll see incomparable views of Bridalveil Fall, El Capitan, the Three Brothers and other famous Yosemite Valley landmarks.

Our numerous vista points also treat us to stunning views of northern high country peaks of Mt. Conness and Mt. Hoffman, as well as the majestic Clark Range, which forms an impressive spine deep within Yosemite’s 1,200 square miles of seemingly endless beauty.
